

adj. rambunctious; energetic

n. horror; disgust

v. to delay temporarily

adj. municipal; pertaining to citizens or township

adj. likely to error; describing the chance of making a mistake

v. to bring about; to cause; to influence someone or something

adj. healthy

adj. sternly forbidding (e.g. future)

adj. joyous; ecstatic

adj. without any preparation (e.g. remarks); unrehearsed

adj. with harmful intent; spiteful adj. discolored by a bruise; extremely angry (e.g. flesh)

adj. thorough; complete

adj. describing a small amount paid for a greater service or value

adj. moving easily; nimble

adj. not important; petty