

Prepositional Phrases - On, In, Under and Out (8)

Please choose the most appropriate answer for each sentence.

Q1 fairness to those who worked on the project for the past 18 months, I have to offer the promotion to one of them before I can even think of offering it to you. I have to be fair to the employees who worked so hard on the project and you didn't help out at all.

- A In B On C Under D Out

Q2 I gave that homeless woman money of pity. She looks like she's had a hard life and she also looked very hungry. Everyone needs to eat.

- A on B in C under D out

Q3 You need to get that agreement paper. A verbal agreement is not enough in this case. You have to get him to sign a contract that entails of the details you talked to him about beforehand.

- A on B in C under D out

Q4 the midst of all of the chaos, a little boy found some peace in his mother's embrace.

- A On B In C Under D Out

Q5 I don't think I need to remind you that you testified to these statements oath. You swore to tell the whole truth before a judge and perjury is a crime.

- A on B in C under D out

Q6 We are good terms now. We had a disagreement about the budget last week but we've worked out our differences and everything is OK now.

- A on B in C under D out

Q7 I really felt of place at that nightclub the other night. I haven't been to a place like that in years and I wasn't really comfortable at all.

- A on B in C under D out

Q8 I bought that laptop sale so I got a really good deal. The electronic store had a 40% off special and I took full advantage of it by buying the most expensive computer they had.

- A on B in C under D out

Q9 I think you are the wrong impression. I'm not here to make any deals. I'm here to inform you that I'm pressing charges against you because you made fraudulent claims and swindled me out of my retirement fund.

- A on B in C under D out

Q10 Wow, I haven't cooked anything for years. I'm really of practice now. I may taste really awful so you'll have to excuse my cooking.

- A on B in C under D out

ANSWERS: Prepositional Phrases - On, In, Under and Out (8)

Q1 fairness to those who worked on the project for the past 18 months, I have to offer the promotion to one of them before I can even think of offering it to you. I have to be fair to the employees who worked so hard on the project and you didn't help out at all.

A In

Q2 I gave that homeless woman money of pity. She looks like she's had a hard life and she also looked very hungry. Everyone needs to eat.

D out

Q3 You need to get that agreement paper. A verbal agreement is not enough in this case. You have to get him to sign a contract that entails of the details you talked to him about beforehand.

A on

Q4 the midst of all of the chaos, a little boy found some peace in his mother's embrace.

B In

Q5 I don't think I need to remind you that you testified to these statements oath. You swore to tell the whole truth before a judge and perjury is a crime.

C under

Q6 We are good terms now. We had a disagreement about the budget last week but we've worked out our differences and everything is OK now.

A on

Q7 I really felt of place at that nightclub the other night. I haven't been to a place like that in years and I wasn't really comfortable at all.

D out

Q8 I bought that laptop sale so I got a really good deal. The electronic store had a 40% off special and I took full advantage of it by buying the most expensive computer they had.

A on

Q9 I think you are the wrong impression. I'm not here to make any deals. I'm here to inform you that I'm pressing charges against you because you made fraudulent claims and swindled me out of my retirement fund.

C under

Q10 Wow, I haven't cooked anything for years. I'm really of practice now. I may taste really awful so you'll have to excuse my cooking.

D out