

Prepositional Phrases - On, In, Under and Out (9)

Please choose the most appropriate answer for each sentence.

Q1 Robert is on bail right now. He was charged with possession of stolen property, but his family paid the deposit necessary for his release, so he is a free man until his court date in November.

- A on B in C under D out

Q2 I haven't been contact with my sister for nearly ten years. We had a bad fight, and we haven't spoken to each other since then.

- A on B in C under D out

Q3 I need you to tell me what happened detail. I want to know exactly what took place, who was there with you, and why it happened.

- A on B in C under D out

Q4 I'll give you my computer exchange for your external hard drive. I think that's a fair trade, because you need a computer and I need another hard drive.

- A on B in C under D out

Q5 You owe excess of $50,000 in back taxes, Mr. Smith. I'm sorry, but given your current circumstances, we can't lend you any more money.

- A on B in C under D out

Q6 The provincial nurses' union went strike again. It seems like they strike for more money every other year!

- A on B in C under D out

Q7 Your proposal is consideration right now. The approval process takes about six weeks. We'll contact you with a decision at that time.

- A on B in C under D out

Q8 Peggy has been of control lately. She's been drinking a lot and spending a lot of money. She's been going to nightclubs nearly every night.

- A on B in C under D out

Q9 I use a textbook conjunction with the tapes that came with it. I'm really learning a lot of the Spanish language this way.

- A on B in C under D out

Q10 I'm the verge of quitting my job. I've almost had enough, because my boss expects too much and I'm underpaid.

- A on B in C under D out

ANSWERS: Prepositional Phrases - On, In, Under and Out (9)

Q1 Robert is on bail right now. He was charged with possession of stolen property, but his family paid the deposit necessary for his release, so he is a free man until his court date in November.

D out

Q2 I haven't been contact with my sister for nearly ten years. We had a bad fight, and we haven't spoken to each other since then.

B in

Q3 I need you to tell me what happened detail. I want to know exactly what took place, who was there with you, and why it happened.

B in

Q4 I'll give you my computer exchange for your external hard drive. I think that's a fair trade, because you need a computer and I need another hard drive.

B in

Q5 You owe excess of $50,000 in back taxes, Mr. Smith. I'm sorry, but given your current circumstances, we can't lend you any more money.

B in

Q6 The provincial nurses' union went strike again. It seems like they strike for more money every other year!

A on

Q7 Your proposal is consideration right now. The approval process takes about six weeks. We'll contact you with a decision at that time.

C under

Q8 Peggy has been of control lately. She's been drinking a lot and spending a lot of money. She's been going to nightclubs nearly every night.

D out

Q9 I use a textbook conjunction with the tapes that came with it. I'm really learning a lot of the Spanish language this way.

B in

Q10 I'm the verge of quitting my job. I've almost had enough, because my boss expects too much and I'm underpaid.

A on