

Prepositional Phrases - With, Within, Without (1)

Please choose the most appropriate answer for each sentence.

Q1 reference to your question at the meeting, we have to stick to the deadline and there are no exceptions. I just spoke with head office and they won't budge.

- A With B Within C Without

Q2 His project was met success and he couldn't be happier. The CEO now wants to give him a raise.

- A with B within C without

Q3 We've discussed this issue a lot and we've decided that, a doubt, you are to blame for the assembly line problems, and we have to let you go as a result.

- A with B within C without

Q4 regard to your previous letters, we cannot refund your money because you signed a contract that is binding.

- A With B Within C Without

Q5 You don't have to drive. The mall is walking distance and it's a beautiful day. I would walk if I were you.

- A with B within C without

Q6 I have to announce, regret, that we will have to downsize and some of you will be without a job by the end of this quarter.

- A with B within C without

Q7 He knew his dream was reach now. He'd worked so hard for so long that he almost couldn't believe he was going to reap the rewards of his efforts soon.

- A with B within C without

Q8 I really need a break now. I've worked, a break, for more than six hours. That's against the law and I'm taking a break whether you like it or not!

- A with B within C without

Q9 The budget went through a hitch. It really helps when you spend a lot of time planning something.

- A with B within C without

Q10 I couldn't have succeeded in this venture the help of my employees. They are just great!

- A with B within C without

ANSWERS: Prepositional Phrases - With, Within, Without (1)

Q1 reference to your question at the meeting, we have to stick to the deadline and there are no exceptions. I just spoke with head office and they won't budge.

A With

Q2 His project was met success and he couldn't be happier. The CEO now wants to give him a raise.

A with

Q3 We've discussed this issue a lot and we've decided that, a doubt, you are to blame for the assembly line problems, and we have to let you go as a result.

C without

Q4 regard to your previous letters, we cannot refund your money because you signed a contract that is binding.

A With

Q5 You don't have to drive. The mall is walking distance and it's a beautiful day. I would walk if I were you.

B within

Q6 I have to announce, regret, that we will have to downsize and some of you will be without a job by the end of this quarter.

A with

Q7 He knew his dream was reach now. He'd worked so hard for so long that he almost couldn't believe he was going to reap the rewards of his efforts soon.

B within

Q8 I really need a break now. I've worked, a break, for more than six hours. That's against the law and I'm taking a break whether you like it or not!

C without

Q9 The budget went through a hitch. It really helps when you spend a lot of time planning something.

C without

Q10 I couldn't have succeeded in this venture the help of my employees. They are just great!

C without