

Prepositional Phrases - With, Within, Without (2)

Please choose the most appropriate answer for each sentence.

Q1 Sam heard everything they said because he was earshot. However, Sam's co-workers had no idea that he heard them talking about their true feelings regarding Sam.

- A with B within C without

Q2 respect to your earlier suggestions, I think we should go ahead with your plans because they are sound.

- A With B Within C Without

Q3 The district attorney thinks he should be charged with first-degree murder because he committed the act intention, and he had a clear motive.

- A with B within C without

Q4 It's not his power to make that kind of decision. We have to go above his head in order to make any real changes around here.

- A with B within C without

Q5 That's not our budget. We can't spend anything on office furniture this year, so you will all have to put up with the office chairs you already have.

- A with B within C without

Q6 fail, Simon did it again. He always puts his foot in his mouth and today is no exception.

- A With B Within C Without

Q7 The tornado hit warning and killed 20 people. No one expected that kind of weather today, and it didn't even show up on the weather radar screen until the last minute.

- A with B within C without

Q8 They wanted to live an organic lifestyle reason. So, they bought a farm and started to grow their own food. However, they still buy some items from the grocery store because they don't have time to grow everything!

- A with B within C without

Q9 This case is precedent and we don't know what to do. We're going to be making some brand-new decisions about this, and it's rather intimidating because we have no frame of reference.

- A with B within C without

Q10 You are, a doubt, the most stubborn man I've ever met! I can't reason with you at all.

- A with B within C without

ANSWERS: Prepositional Phrases - With, Within, Without (2)

Q1 Sam heard everything they said because he was earshot. However, Sam's co-workers had no idea that he heard them talking about their true feelings regarding Sam.

B within

Q2 respect to your earlier suggestions, I think we should go ahead with your plans because they are sound.

A With

Q3 The district attorney thinks he should be charged with first-degree murder because he committed the act intention, and he had a clear motive.

A with

Q4 It's not his power to make that kind of decision. We have to go above his head in order to make any real changes around here.

B within

Q5 That's not our budget. We can't spend anything on office furniture this year, so you will all have to put up with the office chairs you already have.

B within

Q6 fail, Simon did it again. He always puts his foot in his mouth and today is no exception.

C Without

Q7 The tornado hit warning and killed 20 people. No one expected that kind of weather today, and it didn't even show up on the weather radar screen until the last minute.

C without

Q8 They wanted to live an organic lifestyle reason. So, they bought a farm and started to grow their own food. However, they still buy some items from the grocery store because they don't have time to grow everything!

B within

Q9 This case is precedent and we don't know what to do. We're going to be making some brand-new decisions about this, and it's rather intimidating because we have no frame of reference.

C without

Q10 You are, a doubt, the most stubborn man I've ever met! I can't reason with you at all.

C without